

OnPath Financial Office Update

March 16, 2020

Dear Valued Clients,

Throughout the country, everyone is doing their part to help minimize the impact of the coronavirus. At OnPath Financial, we will continue to do our part while caring for our team members and staying open for business. Beginning Monday, March 16th, all OnPath Financial team members have been given the opportunity to work from home for the next two weeks. As we have communicated before, we are continually ready for situations such as this and there will be no loss of function through this process. You can continue to reach all OnPath Financial employees by the same means and turnaround times should not be impacted.

While some may have the need or desire to work remotely, we expect many will continue to come into the office. If you have a meeting scheduled at our St. Charles office over the next couple of weeks, we kindly ask that you make sure you feel well and are following current CDC guidelines. We have asked the same of all of our team members. All high-touch areas of our office will also be sanitized periodically throughout the day. If you are not able or are uncomfortable coming to the office, we have the capability to turn any meeting into a virtual meeting using our remote meeting technology. Please contact us for more information on that option.

Many financial services firms throughout the country are prohibiting any onsite interactions for the foreseeable future. It is our desire to remain available for in-person meetings while balancing the necessity to care for our team members and the health of you, our valued clients. Thank you for your support and understanding through this period. This is when we all pull together and are at our best, and through our collective effort, we pray this is behind us very soon.

Be well and stay healthy,

Your Wealth Management Team,

Kyle Witt, MBA
Daniel Tresemer, CFP®
